FLU SEASON

Worst may be over, but don't relax yet

Pharmacies now have flu vaccines,
but the demand
has dropped

A sign advertises flu shots at a West Kelowna pharmacy.

We've likely crested the peak of flu season, but keep washing your hands on the way down.

The bug has caused outbreaks in 35 long-term care homes across the War on milfoil

A rototiller from the Okanagan Basin Water Board digs up Eurasian milfoil from the swim area in front of Hot Sands Beach in City Park on Wednesday. The annual control program focuses on harvesting milfoil in the summer and rototilling the root system in the fall and winter. The water board has been responsible for milfoil control since the 1970s.
