

THE DAILY COURIER

Extreme weather focus for March 22 panel discussion

Posted: Sunday, March 13, 2016 9:56 pm

Staff | 0 comments

A panel discussion on World Water Day will look at droughts and floods in the Okanagan Valley, and at how extreme weather events are changing and occurring more frequently.

Margaret Catley-Carlson, vice-chairwoman of the Canadian Water Network Board, will be the keynote speaker, talking about the Okanagan's role in national and international water issues.