

No change to Okanagan Basin Water Board budget

Wendy McLeod

11/9/2012

The purse strings have tightened with the Okanagan Basin Water Board.

They've approved their 2013-2014 budget with no increase for the coming year after recognizing the need for fiscal restraint.

The overall tax requisition is $3.4 million, which is down slightly from last year.

The budget mainly focuses on priority water programs and services for the region.